Arts Education Initiative Shape and Structure (a brief reminder...)

Based on successful arts education models from around the country and Arizona, this arts education initiative will involve:

- Arts learning tied to Arizona's Academic Standards in the Arts
- The integration of arts learning into other academic areas as age appropriate and of interest to the participating school
- Creating partnerships between classroom teachers, subject area teachers, arts specialist teachers and artistic resources in the local community (such as artists in residence, higher education resources and cultural organizations)
- Intensive, on-going professional development for participating educators and community arts partners
- Evaluation of the initiative, including ways to measure the intent of the initiative as outlined above (student achievement; teaching practices)
- Projects which reflect grades that are currently involved in AIMS Testing: 3, 5, 8 & 10 or above.

Title V Arts Education Initiative: Available Funding for the 2005/2006 school year. The Department of Education will award funds similar to the amounts awarded in the 2004/2005 school year. Applicants may request up to 5% more than their 2004-2005 funding award. Please note that final amounts may be less than what is requested based on amount of available federal funds.

- Professional Development Expenses, including work with a Technical Assistance Provider. Approved list (vetted for Comprehensive School Reform arts education sites) available at: http://www.ade.az.gov/procurement/awards.asp.
- Travel Expenses. Related to Professional Development opportunities located more than two hours from the school site. Please note: this year the Department will fund only opportunities available in the state of Arizona.
- Community Artistic Resource Expenses. Funding will be available to pay community partners to participate in arts education integration projects at school sites.
- Arts Education Supplies. Supplies necessary to undertake the arts education integration program chosen by the school in partnership with the Technical Assistance Provider can be purchased using grant funds.
- Evaluation. On-site evaluation will be paid for by the school directly out of grant funding.
- Stipends for participating teachers. As appropriate, funds may be used to supplement a teacher's normal contract for work specific to the arts education initiative.

Critique of the 2004/2005 Arts Education Initiative programs

- 9. What did you expect would happen with your 2004/2005 Arts Education funding? "We expected our students/teachers/school would..."
- 10. What have you learned during this first year as a school and/or consortium? "Going through this first year of programming, we have discovered or learned..."
- 11. What have been the highlights of your 2004/2005 program?
- 12. What would you do differently based on your first year's experience?
- 13. What suggestions do you have for the Arizona Department of Education based on your first year's experience? (This question will help the Department devise appropriate technical assistance workshops for participating schools.)

Plans for 2005/2006 Arts Education Initiative programs

- 14. What are your goals for the 2005/2006 arts education initiative? Include measurable, concrete (and realistic!) outcomes for:
 - a. Teachers
 - b. Students (include number of students you plan to serve plus academic outcomes in the arts and the tested subject areas of reading, writing, math)
 - c. Administrators
 - d. Parents/Community members (include number you plan to serve)
- 15. What are your plans for the 2005/2006 arts education funds? Include:
 - a. Information on use of your technical assistance provider, including any change in provider if planned
 - b. Information on participating schools, teachers and students (grade levels/subject areas) involved
 - c. Information on how you will partner with community arts resources
 - d. Information on how you will showcase your work in your school and community
 - e. Information on how parents will partner in the work
- 16. Your estimated expenses per activity (as appropriate). This budget sketch will replace the need to fill out a budget along with this narrative amendment. Upon approval, an online fiscal application for the 2005-2006 school year will be required.

This section can be answered using a timeline format, such as:
